

Membership Values

Convention Opportunities—

- Keynote Speaker – Fun, Entertaining and Educational
- INTEX Trade Show — One place to meet vendors and see the new products and installation procedures.
- Networking and Partnering Opportunities – meet new contacts/relationship building opportunities; network with others outside your markets that are facing similar challenges. Comparing notes and having a meaningful exchange, with real problem solving potential, can be done without concerns about sharing information with direct competitors.
- Education – Talented specialists brought to the Convention to teach and discuss subjects that are important to our business.

CISCA Publications:

- CISCA Handbook — Great reference guide for estimators and field personnel.
- Production Guide – Great reference guide for contractors
- Various Specialty Ceiling Guides – Wood Ceilings Technical Guidelines, Guidelines for Seismic Restraint, Acoustical Ceilings Use & Practice, and more

E-Newsletter—

- Weekly e-newsletter. Member news is included free of charge – a great marketing opportunity.

Education—

- Webinars — A way to train many of your employees on a regular basis with industry information.
- Convention Education — Talented specialists brought to the Convention to teach and discuss subjects that are important to our business.
- Acoustical Interior Construction Magazine — Great articles, ads showing new and innovative products, project information, industry information, and more.

Independent Studies—

- Fantastic acoustical papers filled with information that you can share with employees, customers, architects, and owners.
 - Acoustics in Healthcare Environments
